

Fifth cousin, one time removed (either way).

Again, my apology for the erroneous information I sent the other day. I was too hasty with preparation of our cousin relationship. That is why wrong information is often the case in family histories (especially if the person is downloading from the Internet). I had the information at my fingertips but was anxious to “chart” and send to you. I skipped a generation.

You can check the CD for details from Frantz Families—Kith & Kin, Volume 3 but here is the brief information regarding my lineage from David Frantz
